Food Truck: Lucky Duck

Charlotte Folk Society is once again hosting its popular Jam-a-thon at Petty Thieves Brewing. Following the success of January's jam-a-thon, which drew strong crowds across all three genres, this fall edition promises an equally energetic atmosphere. Whether you're a seasoned musician or just "jam-curious," all skill levels are welcome to join in. Music lovers can enjoy three traditional acoustic styles—Bluegrass, Old Time, and Celtic—all in one lively location.
